

BROOKLYN CITY.

RAILROADS.—The railroad mania appears to be still alive. Petitions were presented for permission to lay railway tracks in Montague-street and Myrtle-avenue by E. B. LITCHFIELD; also by same parties, from Fulton and Montague Ferries to Third-avenue. One from JOHNSON, HUDSON & Co., through Flushing-avenue and other streets.

PRESENTATION.—The members of Engine Company No. 2, on Monday evening, presented their late Foreman, WILLIAM VANDEVEER, with a complete fireman's suit, in token of their respect for him as an officer and a man.

THICKLY SETTLED.—There is a house in Hudson-avenue, near the Ferry, in this city, which is occupied by over seven hundred human beings.

KINGS' COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—A regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors was held yesterday afternoon at the County Jail. His Honor, Mayor BERRY, of Williamsburg, President, in the Chair, and a quorum of members present.

Minutes were read and approved. Numerous bills were referred to Committees.

The Committee on Alms-House, to whom was referred the communication of Messrs. Bunnell & Holmes, of the 10th inst., certifying that the bill of William Burden for completing their contract, report the same to be correct, and recommend the same to be paid. Also, in a communication from Messrs. King & Kellum, of the 12th inst., certifying that the contract between this Board and Bunnell & Holmes is completed, and that in consequence of an order Wm. Burden is entitled to the

The New York Times

Published: January 19, 1853

Copyright © The New York Times